

W. P. WALTON.

SINCE 1864 the popular vote for President has been as follows: In that year Lincoln carried 22 States and got 2,216,069 votes; McClellan three States and 1,808,725 votes; Lincoln's majority 407,342. In 1868, Grant got 26 States and 3,015,071 votes; Seymour eight and 2,709,613 votes; republican majority 305,458. At the next election, in 1872, Grant carried 31 States, with a vote of 3,597,070 and Greeley six with 2,831,079. O'Connor, dem., received 29,408 votes that year, and Black, temperance, 5,608. In 1876, Tilden received majorities in 17 States, making his vote 4,284,855. Hayes got 21 States and a popular vote of 4,033,950. In the same year Cooper, greenbacker, got 81,740 votes, and Smith, prohibition, 9,522, making Mr. Tilden's majority over all 239,673; over Hayes 230,835. Garfield and Hancock each carried 19 States in 1880, the former receiving 4,419,053 votes and the latter 4,442,035. Weaver, greenbacker, got 307,306, making an opposition majority against Garfield of 270,288. It will be seen by this that the democratic elected their ticket once and that their vote has been steadily increasing since the war, the difference in the last Presidential election being but 7,018 in favor of Garfield. With a stronger candidate than before and with one infinitely superior in every respect to the republican nominee, we can not see how it is possible for the democracy to fall of victory this time.

A RARE event in a single life will be celebrated by an old time dinner at the Galt House next Friday, the 10th. On that day Dr. C. C. Graham, still a hale and hearty citizen of Louisville, will be 100 years old. Three years older than the present "more perfect union of the States," he has slept under the bearskin with Daniel Boone, hunted deer with Simon Kenton, seen the States grow from 13, with a population of 3,000,000 to 38, with a population of 57,000,000; been contemporary with every President of his country and was a guest at the marriage of Abraham Lincoln's father and mother.—[Times.]

THE Richmond Herald sadly remarks: "The grandson of John J. Crittenden is in jail awaiting final trial for murder. The grandson of Henry Clay, bright and popular, is in his shroud, shot and killed by a saloon keeper in a drunken row." Yes, and a great-grandson of the immortal Patrick Henry was a prisoner in the Louisville jail Wednesday charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

BRO. BRINEY, who would have people believe he is so free from sin that he can cast a stone at Cleveland, is catching it on all sides for his uncalculated, unjust and unreligious article in the Apostolic Times. If the proprietor of that paper knows his interests he will muzzle the self righteous Briney. The people do not want their religion and their politics combined.

IN one of his letters this week Gath says he has been so busy for the last twenty-five years that he has not had time even to get acquainted with his family. It is all his own fault. Nobody is dying to read his gush and the public would be just as well off were he to take an indefinite leave of absence.

TAMMANY exhibited its first open piece of treachery by nominating a full county and city ticket, without consulting the other democratic organizations of New York, and passing a resolution which first slapped Cleveland in the face and then mockingly pledged him loyal support.

AND who bought it. He said, "Well, I'll be damned if I know anything about it. All I know is that he makes it and sell it. Some folks say they make bread of it; others say they feed their hogs with it. I'll be damned if I know what they do with it. I'd rather not feed my hogs on it; I'd sooner buy mussy flour for them. You can't get any more out of me; you'd better go."—[Boston Gazette.]

PAPER DOORS—Doors made of paper are being used in a number of apartment houses now being built in New York City. The doors of paper cost about the same as wooden ones, and are preferred by builders because they never shrink, swell, crack, nor warp. They are composed of thick paper boards, stamped and moulded into panels, cemented together with glue and potash, made to firmly and permanently adhere by being passed between heavy rollers. After being united they are first covered with a waterproof coating, followed by a fire-proof coating, then painted and varnished, and are ready to be hung. Except from the lightness those not in the secret would not suspect that the doors are not made of wood. When used as sliding-doors the weight is not easily noticed and the illusion is perfect.

Don't Look Like a Weak.

When a man is going down hill everybody is ready to give him a kick. Yes, that is so. It is not natural. Why, many a man and woman, seeking employment, would have got it if their hair hadn't been so thin and gray. One bottle of Parker's Hair Balsam is then the best investment. It stops falling hair, promotes new growth and restores color. Clean, highly perfumed, not a dye. A great improvement over any similar preparation sold at the low price of 50c.

Don't Look Like a Weak.

—The Kentucky Mexican veterans will have a grand reunion at St. Louis October 8 and 9.

—The new patent process flour mill at Lexington is now in operation, turning out 250 barrels per day.

—The report that Gen. Thos. Ewing, democratic candidate for governor of Ohio in 1879, intends to support Blaine, is pronounced a lie.

—The stockholders of the L. & N. met in Louisville Wednesday and decided to issue $5,000,000 in new stock. President Smith's report is as follows: The mortgage debt outstanding June 30, 1884, was $7,530,712 against $57,903,230 at the last report. The capital stock of the company consists of $25,000,000 outstanding listed stock and $5,000,000 treasury stock unlisted. The floating debt was $5,346,111.68, against $2,138,984 the same date in 1883. The earnings of the road for the year were $14,351,092.81, against $13,334,916.28 the year preceding. The operating expenses of the year were $8,823,785.56, leaving the net earnings $5,527,307.25. The net income of the road for the year was $1,127,336.56, against an outlay of $1,260,247.10.

DEATHS.

—Barney VanArsdale Craig, son of John H. Craig, whose illness was mentioned in last issue, died at Vanderbilt University at 8:45 p. m. Wednesday, of typhoid fever, aged 16 years. He was a bright and promising boy and his death falls with peculiar force on his father and old grandfather, who had built high hopes on his future. Three years ago Barney gave his heart to his God and has since tried to live a Christian. My his relatives and friends find consolation in believing their loss is his gain and that whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth. The remains arrived here at 1 o'clock this morning and after services at the Presbyterian church by Revs. I. S. McElroy and H. C. Morrison at 2:30 p. m. to-day will be laid away in B. F. McElroy.

PAINT LICK, GARRARD COUNTY.

—There was not a single ticket sold here to the Blaine Show.

—The firm of Smith & Rice, successors to R. H. Batson took possession on the 1st and will in a short time open up a large stock of goods.

—W. Ward sold to Dr. Holland, of Berea, a part of the land lately purchased of Gideon Rothwell about two acres for $500. Dr. Holland will move in a few days. Dr. Spillman sold to Henry Beasley a house and lot for $450.

—Mamie, little daughter of Capt. T. K. Hackley, has been quite sick with malarial fever. Tom Soper left Tuesday for Lexington, where he will attend college. R. G. Ward, of East Bernstadt, smiles behind the counter of Ward & Lutes. Will Ward went to the city this week to lay in his supply of fall and winter stock of goods.

—We chanced to go to Crab Orchard Monday and on our way stopped at the famous watering place, Dripping Springs. They have undergone such a change since they have been in the possession of Mr. D. J. Slaughter that we can hardly realize that it was the same place. When we were last there, there were a few old dilapidated buildings standing here and there. The ball-room was propped up with poles. Mr. Slaughter has put in their stead two large buildings and in a few days he will have them furnished and on Saturday, Oct. 18th he will open up with a grand ball, theatrical plays, balloon ascension, display of fireworks, &c.

The oldest and largest tree in the world, so far as is known, is a chestnut near the foot of Mount Etna. It is hollow and big enough to admit two carriages driving abreast through it. The circumference of the main trunk is 212 feet. The Grizzly Giant, monster of the Mariposa Grove, measures 92 feet.

—The oldest and largest tree in the world, so far as is known, is a chestnut near the foot of Mount Etna. It is hollow and big enough to admit two carriages driving abreast through it. The circumference of the main trunk is 212 feet. The Grizzly Giant, monster of the Mariposa Grove, measures 92 feet.

—The oldest and largest tree in the world, so far as is known, is a chestnut near the foot of Mount Etna. It is hollow and big enough to admit two carriages driving abreast through it. The circumference of the main trunk is 212 feet. The Grizzly Giant, monster of the Mariposa Grove, measures 92 feet.

—The oldest and largest tree in the world, so far as is known, is a chestnut near the foot of Mount Etna. It is hollow and big enough to admit two carriages driving abreast through it. The circumference of the main trunk is 212 feet. The Grizzly Giant, monster of the Mariposa Grove, measures 92 feet.

—The oldest and largest tree in the world, so far as is known, is a chestnut near the foot of Mount Etna. It is hollow and big enough to admit two carriages driving abreast through it. The circumference of the main trunk is 212 feet. The Grizzly Giant, monster of the Mariposa Grove, measures 92 feet.

—The oldest and largest tree in the world, so far as is known, is a chestnut near the foot of Mount Etna. It is hollow and big enough to admit two carriages driving abreast through it. The circumference of the main trunk is 212 feet. The Grizzly Giant, monster of the Mariposa Grove, measures 92 feet.

—The oldest and largest tree in the world, so far as is known, is a chestnut near the foot of Mount Etna. It is hollow and big enough to admit two carriages driving abreast through it. The circumference of the main trunk is 212 feet. The Grizzly Giant, monster of the Mariposa Grove, measures 92 feet.

CRAB ORCHARD, LINCOLN COUNTY.

—Corn cutting is now the order of the day with farmers and hands that are not too lazy to work can make good wages.

—Conundrum: If Gov. J. B. McCreary can beat two such two-legged men as Phil Thompson and Judge Durham, how many one-legged men like Sebastian can he beat?

—Col. W. G. Welch and Judge Jno. M. Phillips, of Stanford, and the Hon. Robert Tomlinson, of Lancaster, are here taking depositions in the case of W. H. Singleton's heirs vs. Clara W. Singleton, his widow.

—J. B. Gilkerson has returned home after a business trip of one two months at Chattanooga. Jim says Tennessee will give a larger majority to Cleveland than Kentucky. Dwight Hardin and Will Stamper are down with fever. Mrs. John Slavin, of Danville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. W. Jones, this week.

—Squirrels are almost as plentiful here as they were in 1876 and corn fields near timber are being greatly damaged by them. It they have not reached Stanford yet, come up, Mr. Editor, and we will take a hunt and have a burgoon prepared by that prince of burgoon-makers, A. Carson, Esq., and if you don't think he can make good burgoon ask Welch.

—We are much obliged to the editor for his kind enquiry about our health. We have not had the flux, but the "blues." We were rather suspicious that we "were one of several that filled up with personal about people that nobody cared to read about," and thought probably our space would be more preferable than a letter; hence our silence. [We could not have meant you, who send less personals than anybody. Ed.]

—Joe Jones sold to George W. James 2 small mule colts for $40 each. G. W. King bought 20 nice mule colts at $50 to $55 per head. Andrew Tucker bought of R. H. Bronaugh one mule colt for $75. Hiram Hiatt sold to Bowen Gover 2 dry cows and 2 scrub yearlings for $92. W. R. Dillion sold to W. T. B. White one yoke oxen for $100 and another to B. B. Land for $95. Andy Rice was here last week and bought of various parties several butcher cattle ranging from 3 to 4 cts. Good feeders are in demand and scarce.

—Cleveland's chances for the Presidency grow brighter each day. One of the most prominent republicans in this district today joined the Cleveland Club and was given the right hand of fellowship by the members present. He had hardly been initiated before he proposed to bet a suit of clothes that each of the following states went for Cleveland: Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia, Massachusetts and New York, but of course could get no takers. We will withhold the name for the present, but if any one is anxious to learn who the new member is, call on Wick Howard.

—J. T. Lasky, who was born and raised here, but now a popular Cincinnati drummer, was married to Miss Jean Dickinson, of this place, Wednesday at 11 o'clock, a. m., at the residence of the bride's mother. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. G. Livingston in his usual impressive style, in the presence of the family, near relatives and a few intimate friends, after which the happy couple took the 12 m. train for Cincinnati, their future home. We have known the contracting parties for years, having gone to school with them in our boyhood days and are satisfied their union can be but a happy one. Our best wishes and that of their many friends in this vicinity attend them.

—I notice in your last issue a correspondent from Junction City, who signed himself "Sretaw," says he was on the night express to the republican convention. (A mighty bad plan for a democrat to go to, if he be one) and "that a drunken man got on at Crab Orchard, the place where some mighty bad men live, and with knife in hand scared two Stanford boys into vacating their seats," &c. We would like to say to "Sretaw" that every drunken man or sober one, either, that gets on the train at Crab Orchard depot (which is a half mile from town) is not a resident here by any means and in this instance the gentleman he speaks of lives some six miles from Crab Orchard. Now as to Crab Orchard being the place where some "mighty bad men live," surely Mr. S. is a stranger here. For the last six years there has not been a quieter or a more civil town in Kentucky. Her citizens are quiet, law-abiding men. We have no bullies or roughs here. And "Sretaw" people who live in glass houses should not throw stones. There never has been a time in the history of Crab Orchard that any two of her citizens tried to assassinate her marshal.

GARRARD COUNTY DEPARTMENT.

Lancaster.

—At half-past ten o'clock Wednesday morning, at the Baptist church, Mr. Howard Rice, son of one of our prosperous farmers, was married to Miss Stella Marksbury, the beautiful eldest daughter of H. A. B. Marksbury, Esq., a prominent business man of this place. The church was crowded with such an audience as has rarely been seen in Lancaster. Rev. T. P. Hale pronounced the impressive ceremony. The attendants were C. A. R. Benson and Miss Nannie Wood; B. G. Fox and Miss Lelia Marksbury. The ushers were W. J. Kinnaird, J. B. Johnston, Frank Fox and Sam G. Harlan. The bridal presents were numerous and costly. The happy couple accompanied by their attendants, left immediately via Danville for Cincinnati and the East.

—The Bright farm of 500 acres, in Woodford county, has been rented at $50 per acre for next year.

—A. H. Hughes sold 100 barrels of new corn last week to J. A. Couchman at $2.25 in the field. [Winchester Democrat.]

—The Lebanon Standard reports sales of 100 yearling mules at an average of $87.20; 10 fat mules at $120 and 50 head of 1,000-pound cattle at 44.

WANTED TO BE SAFE.—An old German down in Ohio, who runs a cooper shop was elected overseer of highways for his township last spring. After waiting a month or two for something to happen, he called on the chairman of the board of supervisors and said:

"I vvas come to see about a bond."

"Bond. What bond?"

"Vhell, I like to gif a bond for one thousand dollars dot I don't run off mit some money from de township."

"Oh, as to that you want have any public money in your hands."

"Vnell, den I like to gif a bond dot I don't steal somebodys cow while I vvas in office. I vvas elected only six weeks in office, but I pegin to feel like I wanted to steal a whole drove of cattle!"

He was allowed to give a bond and went home satisfied.

A NEW WAY TO BUY A HORSE.—The Turf, Field and Farm says that previous to the $10,000 race at Hartford, J. D. Ripley requested Charles H. Raymond to put a price on the gray gelding, Phil Thompson, who was entered for the purse and was regarded as having a good chance to win. Mr. Raymond declined but said he would entertain an offer. Mr. Ripley remarked in an off hand way, "I will give you double what you paid David Bonner for his half interest in the horse." "Say double and $3,000 additional and the horse is yours." "No, but I'll make it $1,000." Mr. Raymond reflected a moment and then remarked, "I will take it." "All right, now tell me what you paid David Bonner for his half interest." "What, you do not know?" "No." Well, it was $5,500." "The devil, you say. Then I owe you $18,000."

DEMME but it's hot.

say to "Sretaw" that every drunken man or sober one, either, that gets on the train at Crab Orchard depot (which is a half mile from town) is not a resident here by any means and in this instance the gentleman he speaks of lives some six miles from Crab Orchard. Now as to Crab Orchard being the place where some "mighty bad men live," surely Mr. S. is a stranger here. For the last six years there has not been a quieter or a more civil town in Kentucky. Her citizens are quiet, law-abiding men. We have no bullies or roughs here. And "Sretaw" people who live in glass houses should not throw stones. There never has been a time in the history of Crab Orchard that any two of her citizens tried to assassinate her marshal.

GARRARD COUNTY DEPARTMENT.

Lancaster.

—At half-past ten o'clock Wednesday morning, at the Baptist church, Mr. Howard Rice, son of one of our prosperous farmers, was married to Miss Stella Marksbury, the beautiful eldest daughter of H. A. B. Marksbury, Esq., a prominent business man of this place. The church was crowded with such an audience as has rarely been seen in Lancaster. Rev. T. P. Hale pronounced the impressive ceremony. The attendants were C. A. R. Benson and Miss Nannie Wood; B. G. Fox and Miss Lelia Marksbury. The ushers were W. J. Kinnaird, J. B. Johnston, Frank Fox and Sam G. Harlan. The bridal presents were numerous and costly. The happy couple accompanied by their attendants, left immediately via Danville for Cincinnati and the East.

—The Bright farm of 500 acres, in Woodford county, has been rented at $50 per acre for next year.

—A. H. Hughes sold 100 barrels of new corn last week to J. A. Couchman at $2.25 in the field. [Winchester Democrat.]

—The Lebanon Standard reports sales of 100 yearling mules at an average of $87.20; 10 fat mules at $120 and 50 head of 1,000-pound cattle at 44.

WANTED TO BE SAFE.—An old German down in Ohio, who runs a cooper shop was elected overseer of highways for his township last spring. After waiting a month or two for something to happen, he called on the chairman of the board of supervisors and said:

"I vvas come to see about a bond."

"Bond. What bond?"

"Vhell, I like to gif a bond for one thousand dollars dot I don't run off mit some money from de township."

"Oh, as to that you want have any public money in your hands."

"Vnell, den I like to gif a bond dot I don't steal somebodys cow while I vvas in office. I vvas elected only six weeks in office, but I pegin to feel like I wanted to steal a whole drove of cattle!"

He was allowed to give a bond and went home satisfied.

A NEW WAY TO BUY A HORSE.—The Turf, Field and Farm says that previous to the $10,000 race at Hartford, J. D. Ripley requested Charles H. Raymond to put a price on the gray gelding, Phil Thompson, who was entered for the purse and was regarded as having a good chance to win. Mr. Raymond declined but said he would entertain an offer. Mr. Ripley remarked in an off hand way, "I will give you double what you paid David Bonner for his half interest in the horse." "Say double and $3,000 additional and the horse is yours." "No, but I'll make it $1,000." Mr. Raymond reflected a moment and then remarked, "I will take it." "All right, now tell me what you paid David Bonner for his half interest." "What, you do not know?" "No." Well, it was $5,500." "The devil, you say. Then I owe you $18,000."

DEMME but it's hot.

say to "Sretaw" that every drunken man or sober one, either, that gets on the train at Crab Orchard depot (which is a half mile from town) is not a resident here by any means and in this instance the gentleman he speaks of lives some six miles from Crab Orchard. Now as to Crab Orchard being the place where some "mighty bad men live," surely Mr. S. is a stranger here. For the last six years there has not been a quieter or a more civil town in Kentucky. Her citizens are quiet, law-abiding men. We have no bullies or roughs here. And "Sretaw" people who live in glass houses should not throw stones. There never has been a time in the history of Crab Orchard that any two of her citizens tried to assassinate her marshal.

GARRARD COUNTY DEPARTMENT.

Lancaster.

—At half-past ten o'clock Wednesday morning, at the Baptist church, Mr. Howard Rice, son of one of our prosperous farmers, was married to Miss Stella Marksbury, the beautiful eldest daughter of H. A. B. Marksbury, Esq., a prominent business man of this place. The church was crowded with such an audience as has rarely been seen in Lancaster. Rev. T. P. Hale pronounced the impressive ceremony. The attendants were C. A. R. Benson and Miss Nannie Wood; B. G. Fox and Miss Lelia Marksbury. The ushers were W. J. Kinnaird, J. B. Johnston, Frank Fox and Sam G. Harlan. The bridal presents were numerous and costly. The happy couple accompanied by their attendants, left immediately via Danville for Cincinnati and the East.

—The Bright farm of 500 acres, in Woodford county, has been rented at $50 per acre for next year.

—A. H. Hughes sold 100 barrels of new corn last week to J. A. Couchman at $2.25 in the field. [Winchester Democrat.]

—The Lebanon Standard reports sales of 100 yearling mules at an average of $87.20; 10 fat mules at $120 and 50 head of 1,000-pound cattle at 44.

WANTED TO BE SAFE.—An old German down in Ohio, who runs a cooper shop was elected overseer of highways for his township last spring. After waiting a month or two for something to happen, he called on the chairman of the board of supervisors and said:

"I vvas come to see about a bond."

"Bond. What bond?"

"Vhell, I like to gif a bond for one thousand dollars dot I don't run off mit some money from de township."

"Oh, as to that you want have any public money in your hands."

"Vnell, den I like to gif a bond dot I don't steal somebodys cow while I vvas in office. I vvas elected only six weeks in office, but I pegin to feel like I wanted to steal a whole drove of cattle!"

He was allowed to give a bond and went home satisfied.

J. W. BROWN.

OWN.

T LAW

IV.

ON.

T LAW.

re and adjoining als.

W. P. WALTON.

Size of Stage, 70x20. Eight ornate sets of scenery. Seating capacity, including gallery, 600. Reasonable rates to good attractions. Address as above.

"MONON ROUTE."

Louisville, New Albany & Chicago Railway.

THE ONLY LINE RUNNING—

Pullman Palace Cars!

—AND SOLID TRAINS—

LOUISVILLE TO CHICAGO

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Passengers from the Knoxville Branch of L. & N. R. R. arrive in Louisville in time to take the evening train of the "Monon Route" and so through to—Greencastle, Crawfordsville, Lafayette and Chicago without change.

—TIME TABLE—

STATIONS.

Daily.

Daily.

Lvs. Louisville..... 7:40 p.m. 8:06 a.m.

Arr. Greencastle..... 1:01 a.m. 2:04 p.m.

" Crawfordsville..... 2:05 a.m. 3:04 p.m.

" Lafayette..... 3:13 a.m. 4:15 p.m.

" Chicago..... 7:30 a.m. 8:56 p.m.

The most direct route, with only one change of cars, to all points in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, &c. For further information, address MURRAY KELLER, G. P. A., Louisville, Ky.

KENTUCKY CENTRAL R. R.

"Blue-Grass Route."

Shortest and Quickest Route from Central Kentucky to all Points North, East, West and Southwest.

—Fast Line Between—

LEXINGTON & CINCINNATI.

Schedule in Effect Sept. 1, 1884.

SOUTH-BOUND.

No. 4.

No. 6.

No. 12.

Daily.

Daily.

Daily.

Lvs. Covington..... 8:10 p.m. 8:20 a.m. 2:00 p.m.

" Lexington..... 9:22 p.m. 9:51 a.m. 3:17 p.m.

" Cincinnati..... 10:10 p.m. 11:09 a.m. 4:45 p.m.

Arr. Paris..... 10:40 p.m. 11:25 a.m. 5:15 p.m.

" Lexington..... 11:15 p.m. 12:25 p.m. 6:00 p.m.

Lvs. Paris..... 10:40 p.m. 11:35 a.m. 5:25 p.m.

Arr. Winchester..... 11:15 p.m. 12:10 p.m. 6:00 p.m.

Lvs. Winchester..... 12:30 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Arr. Richmond..... 1:30 p.m. 7:15 p.m.

" Lancaster..... 2:30 p.m. 8:00 p.m.

" Bowling..... 3:25 p.m. 8:55 p.m.

Arr. Berea..... 2:08 p.m.

" Lexington..... 3:15 p.m.

" Louisville..... 4:02 p.m.

" Williamsburg..... 4:25 p.m.

" Jellico..... 4:55 p.m.

NORTH-BOUND.

No. 3.

No. 5.

No. 11.

Daily.

Daily.

Daily.

Lvs. Jellico..... 8:30 a.m.

" Louisville..... 9:15 a.m.

" Williamsburg..... 9:45 a.m.

Arr. Richmond..... 1:30 p.m.

Lvs. Richmond..... 11:15 a.m.

" Lexington..... 11:41 a.m.

" Bowling..... 12:25 p.m.

" Winchester..... 2:25 p.m.

Arr. Lexington..... 3:00 p.m. 1:35 p.m. 7:25 a.m.

Arr. Paris..... 3:35 p.m. 2:15 p.m. 8:10 a.m.

Lvs. Winchester..... 2:25 p.m. 11:51 a.m. 7:20 a.m.

Arr. Paris..... 3:40 p.m. 2:15 p.m. 8:05 a.m.

Lvs. Paris..... 4:05 p.m. 2:35 p.m. 8:45 a.m.

" Cincinnati..... 4:15 p.m. 3:25 p.m. 9:35 a.m.

" Covington..... 4:05 p.m. 3:35 p.m. 11:30 a.m.

MAYSVILLE BRANCH.

NORTH-BOUND.

No. 35.

No. 37.

No. 54.

Daily.

Daily.

Daily.

Lvs. Covington..... 7:00 a.m.

" Lexington..... 7:45 a.m.

Arr. Paris..... 8:10 a.m.

Arr. Maysville..... 8:40 a.m.

Arr. Louisville..... 9:00 a.m.

Arr. Maysville..... 10:00 a.m.

SOUTH-BOUND.

No. 36.

No. 38.

No. 55.

Daily.

Daily.

Daily.

Lvs. Maysville..... 1:15 p.m.

" Johnson..... 1:37 p.m.

" Louisville..... 2:45 p.m.

Arr. Maysville..... 3:05 p.m.

Arr. Lexington..... 3:30 p.m.

Arr. Covington..... 4:05 p.m.

Notes.—Train No. 3 runs daily from Winchester and Lexington to Covington, but is daily except Sunday south of Winchester.

Train No. 1 runs via Lexington and Paris, and not via Winchester and Paris.

Falmouth Accommodation.—No. 10, daily, lvs. Covington 5:25 p.m.; arrive Falmouth 7:30 p.m.

No. 9, daily, lvs. Falmouth 6 a.m.; arrive Covington 8 a.m.

No. 30, Sunday only, lvs. Covington 8:55 a.m.; arrive Falmouth 10:40 a.m.

No. 31, Sunday only, lvs. Falmouth 8 p.m.; arrive Covington 9 p.m.

Lexington and Paris.—No. 52, daily except Sunday, lvs. Paris 10 a.m.; arrive Lexington 10:40 a.m.

No. 53, daily except Sunday, lvs. Lexington 10:40 p.m.; arrive Paris 11:15 p.m.

Fast Line.—Nos. 3 and 4 run via Winchester, Solid Trains, with Pullman Sleeping Cars between Cincinnati and Richmond, Va., and Winchester and Washington, D. C.

Through tickets and baggage checked to any destination reached by a railroad.

S. F. B. BOKEL, Passenger Agent, Winchester, Ky.

C. W. SMITH, Trav. Pass. Agent, Lexington, Ky.

H. W. FULLER, General Manager, Gen. Pass. Agt.

inning

nd Spinning

d by express was accurate

black case is fur-

it. Send on

J. B. SOY,

burg, Ky.

college.

chers,

hession

next.

COURSE

DRAW.

ATE.

$50 in the $50; Preparatory, $40, and Collegiate, $60.

For full particulars, call on Board, or address

MRS. S. C. TRUENKART, Principal,

Stanford, Lincoln Co., Ky.

CULMINATION OF SUCCESS!

THE MOST IMPORTANT DISPLAY OF INDUSTRY AND ART EXHIBITED IN THIS COUNTRY, THE CENTENNIAL EXCEPTED.

They have been attended by 4,000,000 of visitors.

NOVELTIES IN EVERY DEPARTMENT.

Cincinnati Grand Orchestra Afternoon and Evening—Concerts on the Great Organ Morning and Afternoon—World Renowned Soloists, Vocal and Instrumental.

COMPREHENSIVE DISPLAYS EXHIBITED BY THE U. S. GOVERNMENT, REPRESENTING ALL DEPARTMENTS.

The Wonders of all Previous Expositions will be eclipsed in the Present, requiring the Erection of additional Buildings.

Reduced Railroad Fare—Hotels will only Charge Regular Rates.

ADMISSION 25 CENTS. — COME ONE! COME ALL!

Opens Sept. 3rd. Closes Oct. 4th. 12th 1894.